

The Glickman Family Scholarship is funded by Todd Glickman whose four-decade career in meteorology has included senior positions in the private sector, radio weathercasting, industry-academic relations, and at the AMS. The scholarship will support a deserving student with interest in the private sector, broadcasting, or operational meteorology. The scholarship carries a $5000 stipend.